1. When I went out of the house, I saw that the sun had disappeared. There was the moon and many stars in the sky. There were no clouds but there was a strong/hard wind blowing. I was glad that my mum had made me put on the coat and hadn't let me leave without my hat on.

2. – Where does your uncle live? – He lives in Omsk. We haven't seen each other for a long time. – Do you know when he will come /is coming to Moscow? – He is coming in august. He hasn't been here since I have been living / have lived in Moscow.

3. I think this text is too difficult for you. You won't have enough time to translate it today. – I agree, but it seems much more interesting to me than the first text. I have enough time to try to translate it today. I don't have to do anything for literature. I've read everything.

4. – Have you already written this test in English? – Yes, we did it yesterday. – How many sentences were there? – Not so many as usually, but I have got a bad mark again. – I told you not to forget to revise all the new words!

5. – Hallo, Ann! What wonderful weather we are having today! Let's go to the park. It is very beautiful there and there aren't many people.
