III.

1. Mary, what is there (lying) on the table? I can't see. – Granny, they are your glasses. - And I have been looking for them for about twenty minutes. Why are they on the kitchen table? Who (has) put them there? – I put them on the table because you (had) said that you were going to have some coffee in the kitchen and to read a magazine.

2. It's so hot today! – Yes, the weather is wonderful. I suggest going to the lake in the afternoon/after lunch, if it doesn't rain. – You know I can't swim, don't you? – First you'll watch me swimming and then you'll try to do it yourself. It's not deep near the shore and there will be fewer people in the afternoon. You must learn to swim!

3. Have you ever been to Sochi? – Yes, I have. Two years ago my parents took me there/went there and took me along/with them. We stayed/were there for two weeks. They have been the most wonderful/exciting two weeks in my life. We had a marvelous/very good/wonderful time: we went swimming, lay in the sun and played tennis and volleyball.

4. Have you read anything interesting lately? – Yes, I've read a very interesting book. It is/was written by the author of "Harry Potter". It's about today's/the present day/contemporary life in a small English town. Would you like me/Do you want me to give it to you to read? – Yes, thank you. – I'm sure you'll enjoy reading it.

5. What is the weather like? – It's snowing. The trees and the houses/buildings are covered with snow. I suggest going skiing in the park. – Let's go to the park, but it's too early to go skiing – there is too little snow on the ground./Let's just go for a walk. And we can do some shopping on the way back.
