Задание 1.

A Valuable Ring

A boy who worked in a shop in a country (1) was sent by his master to the house of a rich customer with a valuable ring.

" (2) Don't open the box," the shopkeeper (3) told (4) the boy. " If you (5) lose the ring you (6) will be punished." The boy's way (7) lay/ was lying across a large park through which (8) flowed a stream. As the boy (9) was crossing the bridge which was thrown across the stream he foolishly (10) took the ring (11) out (12) of the box as he (13) wanted to have (14) a look (15) at it. While he (16) was doing so the ring slipped out of his hand and (17) fell into the mud on the bank of the stream. He (18) tried to find it for a long time but (19) couldn't do it.

(20) At last darkness (21) made him (22) stop his search. "If my master (23) learns it he (24) will kill me," thought the poor boy. He was(25) so frightened that he (26) decided that he (27) would never return (28) home. He (29) had to run away and he (30) became (31) a sailor.

He (32) spent many years in America and (33) got very rich. But still he (34) dreamed/dreamt/was dreaming that one day he (35) would go back to his home country. And so he did. He (36) bought the estate with the stream into which he (37) had dropped the ring as a boy.

One day when he and (38) his friend (39) were walking along the bank of the stream, which (40) had caused him so much trouble, they (41) came to the place where he (42) had lost the ring. He (43) pushed his stick (44) into the mud exclaiming, "I (45) am absolutely sure that it (46) is the exact spot where the ring (47) was lost." And when he (48) pulled the stick out he saw the ring (49) hanging at the end of it. "I (50) have found the ring," he exclaimed.

Задание 2.

1. The shopkeeper asked the boy not to open the box.
2. The shopkeeper added (that) if he lost the ring he would be punished.
